Excellence....

We Strive For Excellence...

Superiority in Administration

Superior is the only word for the administration and faculty of LHS. Luverne is fortunate to be under the supervision of a Board of Education, headed by Mr. C. W. Carpenter, that truly strives for excellence in the educational system. Mr. C. W. Claybrook, as principal, provides the leadership under which the dedicated faculty constantly seeks to improve its methods. As the administration of Luverne High School moves forward and upward, it is with one goal in mind — to better equip the students of LHS to cope with the problems of a changing world.

Experience in Life

At LHS we recognize that experiences, whether good or bad, are a vital part of the lives of all students. It is only through participation and experimentation that girls and boys mature into teenagers, and teenagers into adults. Thus, Luverne High School seeks to offer each student, through its features and special activities, an opportunity to experiment in living.

Superiority in Administration

Achievement in Extracurriculum

"All work and no play would make LHS a dull school" and LHS is anything but dull. Through our many varied extracurricular activities we provide the students a chance to participate in all phases of work and play. There are organizations for scholarship, for culture, for athletics, for creativeness, and for pep and spirit. Though these clubs are serious in purpose, they offer LHS'ers relief from classwork and give them an opportunity for fun and achievement in other fields.

Competition in Sports

The athletic department of Luverne High is no different from that of other schools in that we strive for victory. However, at LHS we strive for something perhaps more important — competition. We play to win, but also for the satisfaction of playing well against stiff competition. Our competition must be clean, honest, good sportsmanlike competition — competition which does honor to a school which is constantly striving for excellence in all fields.

Competition in Sports

Acceleration in Studies

Success in the Future

Acceleration in Studies

Throughout its entire curriculum, Luverne High School, seeks to indoctrinate its students with a deep longing for knowledge. Scholarship is given the position of foremost importance in all matters. Mr. Claybrook's motto of "classwork first" is known and respected by all LHSers. Through the inspiration of dedicated teachers and recognition of scholastic ability, Luverne High tries to instill in its students a desire for acceleration in studies.

Success in the Future

"Success" is the one word which best describes the goal of Luverne High School. The underlying purpose of the administration, activities, clubs, competition, and classes is that of preparation for the future. When an LHS student has completed his senior year, he has acquired much of the knowledge and experience needed for future success. Even more important, there is embedded deep within him an ambition to "Strive for Excellence."

Sapiens Initiate Fifteen Members

"For we are jolly good Sapiens, "chanted the fifteen new National Honor Society members as they crawled around Mrs. Sara Folmar's backyard during the traditional initiation. Raw eggs were the reward for disobeying the command of one of the former members.

These new NHS members, from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes, also participated in a formal initiation during an April assembly. After a brief program on the purposes and ideals of the club, the new members were tapped by the old members. Membership in the society represents one of the highest scholastic honors that an LHS student can receive.

After a formal tapping ceremony the new members proudly join the old members of the National Honor Society.

Campbell, Harem girl; Petrey, Scotchman; and Wyatt, Pocahontas won prizes for the best costumes at the informal initiation.

Four girls symbolize Character, Honor, Scholarship, and Leadership; the things for which the National Honor Society stands.

National Honor Society officers are Martha Morgan, president; Sam Ellison, vice-president; Sally Hicks, secretary; and Gwen Franklin, treasurer. In every club there has to be at least one man to head it. Ours is Sam Ellison.

These Creative girls are the club officers, Patsy Petrey, parliamentarian; Laura Petrey, historian; Linda Bell, secretary-treasurer; Lois Turner, president; Kay Davis, vice-president.

J. Turner, Phillips, Hicks, P. Petrey, Bray, Gipson, Folmar, Welch, Morgan, English, Dorman, Walker, Horn, C. Bell, L. Turner, L. Bell, L. Petrey, Davis, sponsor Mrs. Jean Petrey.

Quill Craftsmen Publish Booklet

Although getting off to a late start in '68, the Creative Writing Club led by Lois Turner, president, published one of its most successful booklets yet.

Co-editors for the literary club's annual Quill Craftsmen Quotes were Lois Turner and Lynne Folmar. The publication is composed primarily of creative works by Luverne High and Elementary contributors. Awards were given in both divisions and winners were chosen by a committee of club members. First place went to Harry Phillips, junior, and Martha Richburg, fourth grader.

Co-editors Lynne Folmar and Lois Turner work to meet the publication deadline.

Frenchmen Enjoy State Convention

"C'est si bon" was the unanimous opinion of the nine Gai Frenchmen of LHS who attended the state French Club Convent on in Tuscaloosa, May 22-23. Chaperoned by Mrs. Dee Turner, sponsor, the students engaged in snowball fights and general assemblies, a banquet, and a party.

Club membership soared from four to thirteen as a result of a new French class at Luverne High. The nine new members went through troublesome, embarrassing and hilarious initiation where they were required to dress as French peasants and perform stunts to please the Senior members. The members also fulfilled the requirements of a formal initiation at the close of an assembly program and thus became members in good standing of "Le Francias Gai de Luverne Lycees."

"Chatter, chatter, br-r-r, shiver, chatter, cheese! Chatter," say these Luverne delegates to the State French Club Convention as they get their picture made.

Sally Hicks, treasurer; Martha Morgan, president; Kay Davis, vice-president; and Lois Turner, secretary; pretend they can still read French.

Our French club, Turner (sponsor), Bray, Smith, Morgan, Welch, Hicks, Mitchell, Kettler, Miller, Andress, Turner, Morgan, Davis, and Hicks doesn't sit around like this very much.

"Marry me or I shall throw myself to the lions," insists Charles Andress at the French Club initiation.

Boy! Those Frenchmen must surely know good jokes!

FTA Is Largest in LHS History

The 1968 chapter of the Future Teachers of America was the largest in its five year history at LHS. Seventy-nine prospective teachers were members of this club which seeks to prepare students for the teaching profession

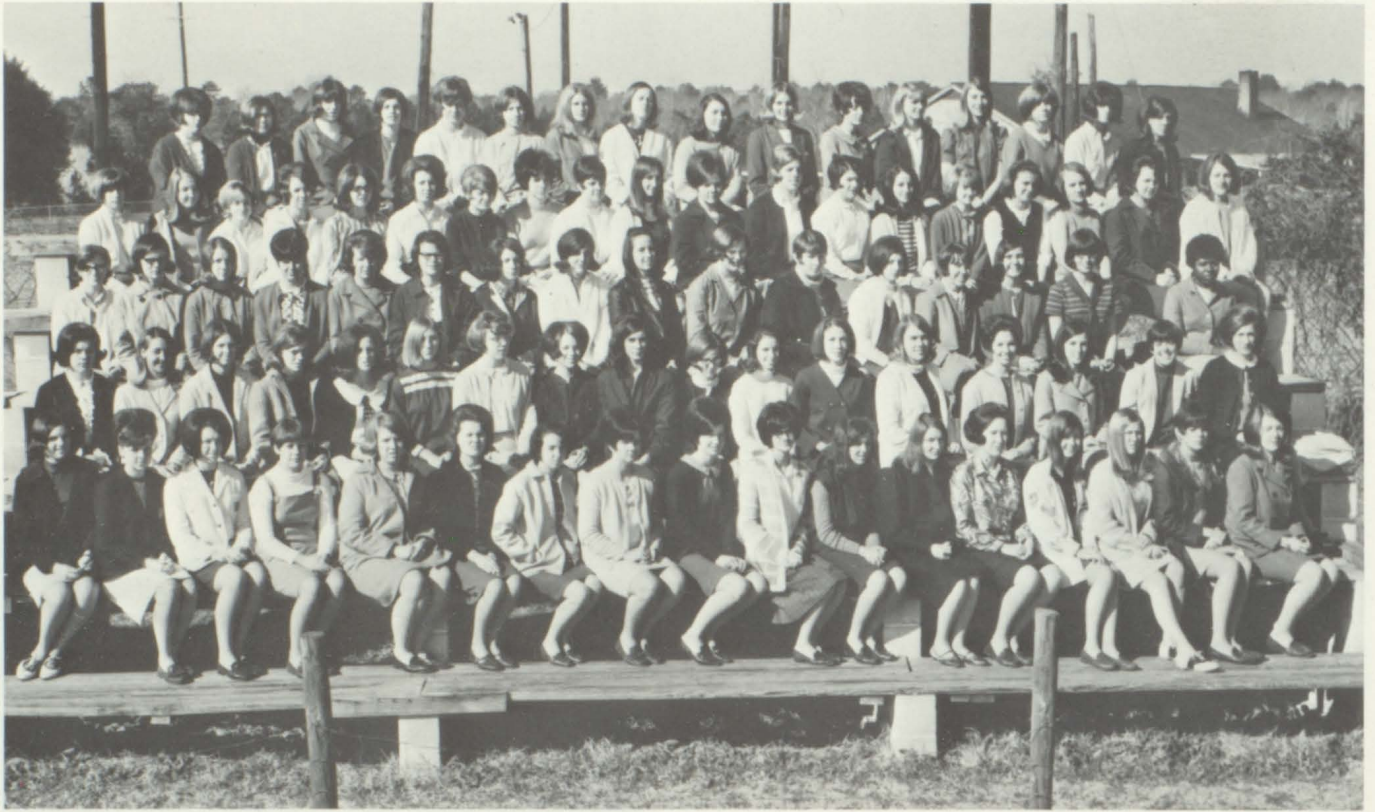

Attending the District II convention at Troy State University were 70 of the club's membership. Martha Morgan and Steve Helms represented the Luverne chapter in the District Mr. and Miss FTA contest.

Accompanied by sponsors, Mrs. Betty Speed and Mrs. Jean Petrey, eight delegates attended the State convention at the Whitley Hotel in Montgomery. Returning to Luverne, they brought with them plans and ideas from other clubs.

Future Homemakers Have Busy Year

Nineteen sixty-eight proved to be a busy yet productive year for the LHS Future Homemakers of America.

Led by President Dianne Rogers and sponsor Mrs. Linda Bland, Home-Economics teacher, members of the club engaged in the Betty Crocker Homemakers Contest and the Annual Beef Cook-Off.

The club's exhibit placed second in the State Fair in Birmingham.

Four of the members, accompanied by Mrs. Bland, attended the State meet at Montevallo April 6 and brought back ideas for an even better FHA at LHS.

Beef Cook-off Winner, Glenda Rushing, Doesn't "beef" around when it comes to cooking.

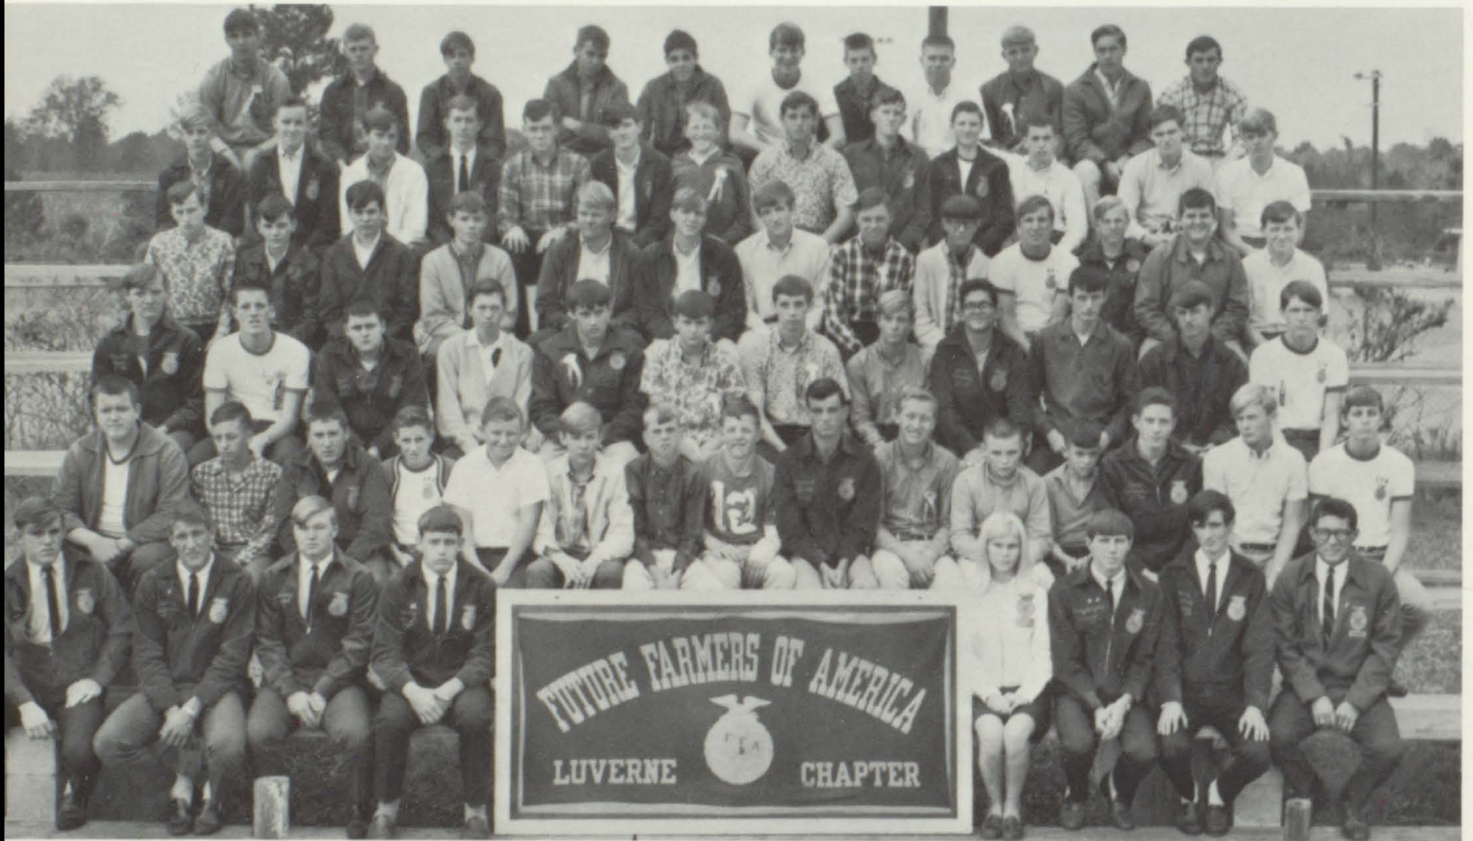

Mrs. Bland looks again to be sure. How could a terrible Home-Ec. student like Martha Morgan win the Betty Crocker Homemaking Award?

LHS' Exhibit captures a second place ribbon in the State Fair at Birmingham.

With leaders like Joe Money, president; David West, secretary; Danny Rogers, treasurer; Eddie Lowery, vice-president; Larry Shirley, sentinel; Roy Mills, reporter; and Mr. Lowell Carter, FFA advisor, it's no wonder the Club makes progress.

Joe Money Leads Future Farmers

The purpose of the FFA is to develop competent leadership, cooperation, and scholarship among agriculture students. Membership is open to all vocational agriculture boys.

The big money making project for the chapter is the publishing of its annual calendar. The calendar has the club picture on it and the boys sell ads throughout the community. The club members also sold magazines as an extra project this year.

er, Nichols, Norman, P. Petrey, L. Petrey, L. Turner, J. Turner, D. Turner, Morgan. This staff published 14 issues of the TIGER RAG.

TR Makes History as Printed Paper

Editor-in-chief Lois Turner led the 1968 staff right into history with the first printed Tiger Rag in its 30 years as the "voice of LHS."

A journalism class organized and taught by Mrs. Dee Turner, worked as reporters, ad salesmen, and newspaper boys. After many hours of study and work the staff successfully published the first fourteen issues of the "new" paper, and a printed Tiger Rag became a tradition at LHS.

The Tiger Rag was a member of the Scholastic Press Association and rated a "very good" for the first semester, an outstanding ranking for a first year paper.

The big bosses are Lois Turner and Martha Morgan.

After which probing computerizing, and testing, we found, that these "human dynamos" were the very ones needed for the editorial staff.

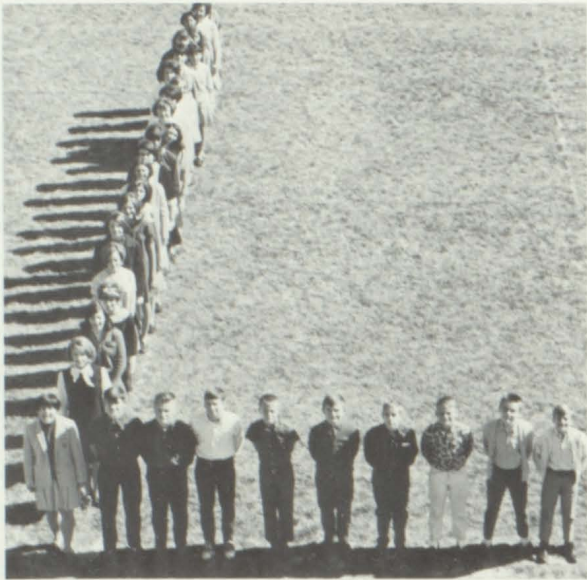

Just because the sponsor said they were the "top-job kiddies", the chief staff people got the big head!

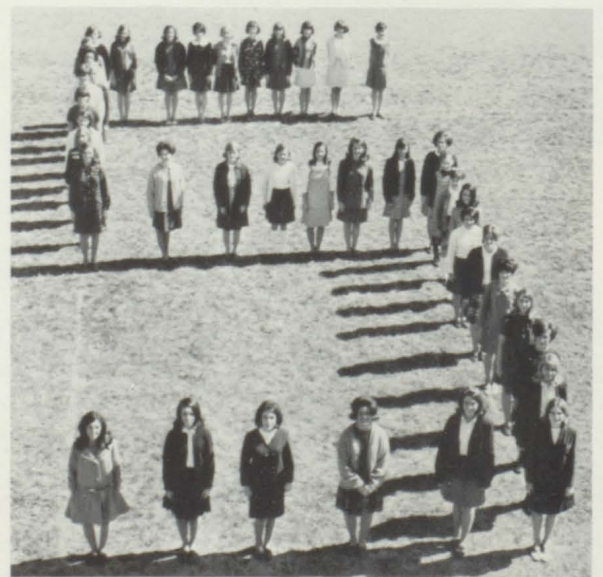

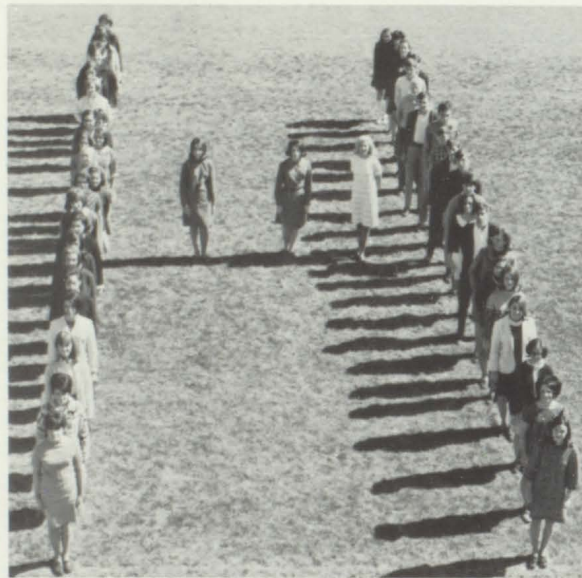

Julias' big asset, her mouth, made her one of the best ad salesmen.

Spirited Students Add Pep to Game

Providing the spirit that pushed the Tigers on to a winning season were the members of the 1968 Pep Squad. Officers for the year were Anne Franklin, president; Bonnie Bagwell, vice-president; and Gwen Franklin, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Pat Folmar was the club sponsor. The club not only provided the pep but it also stapled programs, helped with booster badges, and carried a bus to all out of town football games.

These pep squad officers' main job is to build enthusiasm . . . toward sports.

Sometimes a basketball audience doesn't always watch a ballgame . . .

Say, is that Linus with his blanket or Sue Gardner?

"Oldies" Keep "L" Club Alive

Although the traditional "L" Club initiation was dispensed with this year and the club did not initiate any new members, the former members kept the organization alive.

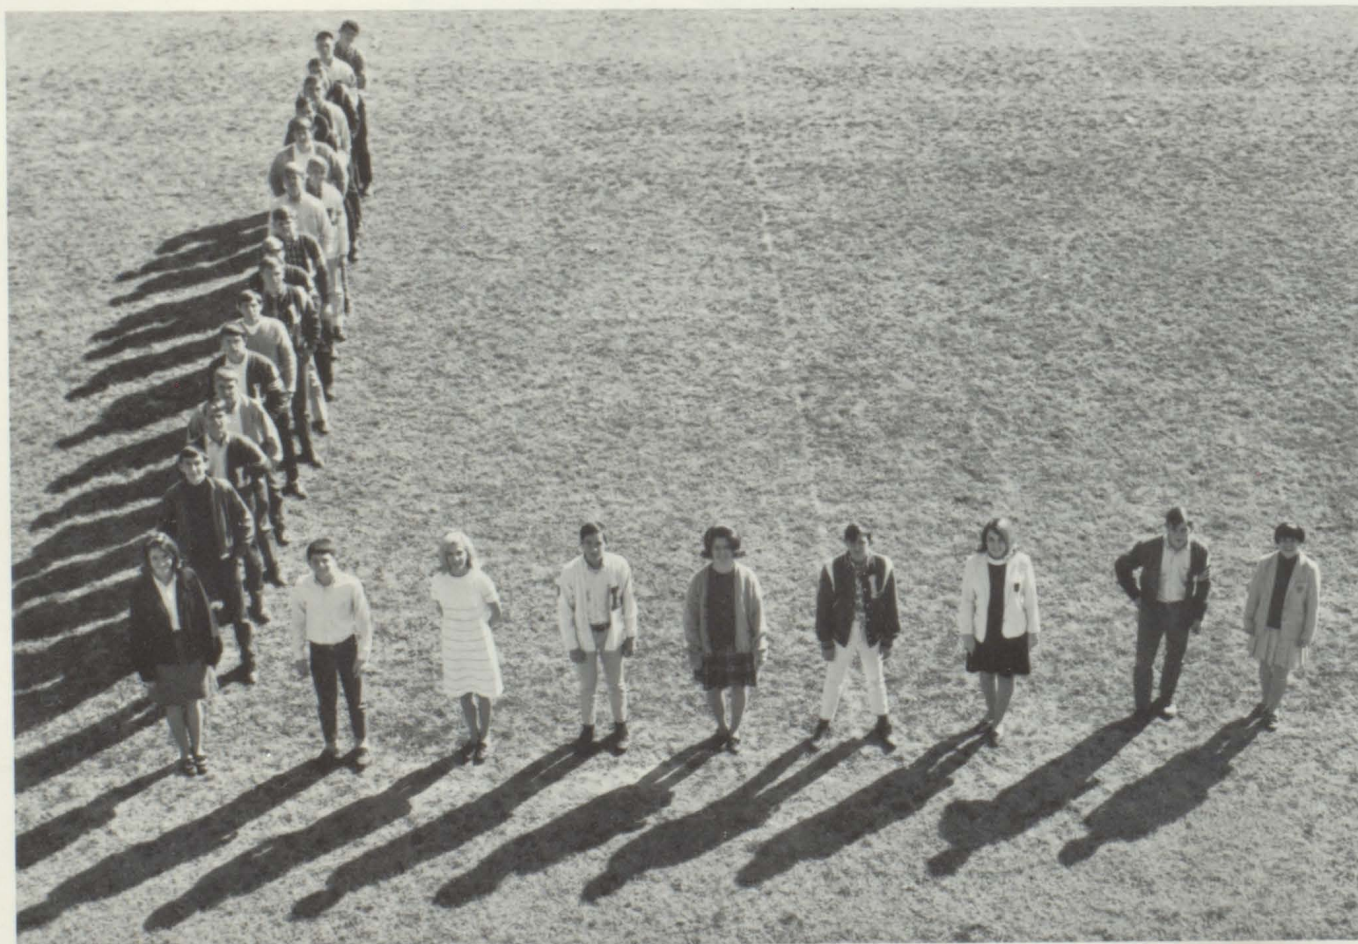

Officers were elected during the business session of the first meeting. Those chosen were Joe Money, president; David West, vice-president; and Sally Hicks, secretary-treasurer. Coach Glenn Daniels served as faculty advisor for the club.

LHS Girls Form Drill Team

During '68 eighteen girls from grades nine through eleven formed the first drill team in the history of LHS. Sponsors for the new group were Mrs. Pat Folmar, Mrs. Lucy Jackson, and Mrs. Glenda Head.

The Tigerettes' first public performance was at a basketball game March 1 to "Hello Dolly" and "Diango's A Castle." The only other time they appeared was in a patriotic routine to "Stars and Stripes Forever" on the Beauty Pageant Program.

The Tigerettes perform at the Beauty Pageant as well as ballgames. Here they run through a snappy little drill.

Six Assistants Aid Mrs. Carter

Mrs. Lena Mae Carter, school secretary, was assisted in her duties by six senior high girls who served as office workers. Each girl worked in the school office for one period a day, during her study hall hour.

These girls' responsibilities ranged from answering the phone to counting lunch money. They also took the lunch report in the elementary school, carried messages, and helped Mrs. Carter with typing letters and reports.

"No, No, Joanne! Two plus two is 4!"

Mrs. Carter, our secretary, has tried all year to teach Jo Jeffcoat, Laura Petrey, Karen Wilkerson, Karen Weaver, Joanne Rogers, and Sue Kendrick, the tricks of the secretarial trade.

Oh, look. See the librarians: Lenore Paul, Jill Perdue, Janice Ballard, Donnie Holmes, Melissa Speed, Judy Williamson, Miss Rachel Lightfoot, Bonnie Beasley, Marilyn Money, Charlotte Taylor, Debbie Worthington, and Sue Horn.

Library Workers Acquire Skills

Eleven LHS students gave up their study hall period to work in the library during the 67-68 school year. Donnie Ray Holmes was the only male librarian.

These students, from the seventh through twelfth grades, served as assistants of Miss Rachel Lightfoot. They checked out books and magazines and collected fees for overdue books, sent out overdue slips to students who forgot to return books. They also became familiar with library procedures, the card catalogue and the Dewey decimal system.

All day long we check out books, check in books, etc.

Choir Rates Superior at State Meet

Officers are Diane Butler, Kline Jeffcoat, Bob Perdue, and James Head, sponsor.

The LHS Glee club, with ninety-eight members was the largest organization in the school. Under the direction of Jim Head, the singers rated an "excellent" at the District meet in Eufaula and went on to State at Tuscaloosa where they received a "superior rating."

Each of the members, from the ninth through twelfth grades, had one period of choir each day. The first time the choir performed was at Homecoming. They also sang in a Veterans' Day program and a Christmas and Spring concert.

Turner, Petrey Edit '68 Panorama

"Bigger and better" was the motto of the 1968 Panorama staff. Led by Co-editors, Patsy Petrey and Joy Turner, the staff with only sixteen members was one of the smallest ever at LHS. However, size was no handicap to these students. Working late into the night they had one goal in sight — a deadline.

The 68 Panorama is 190 pages, 50 more than the preceding annual. Each club was given a double-page spread in the new annual, and more different activities were included than in previous years.

The 1968 staff sought to improve the yearbook not only in quantity but in quality. Ten of the members, along with Mrs. Susie Petrey, sponsor, attended a Yearbook Workshop at Huntington College during the summer to learn better methods of make-up and lay-out.

Our editors, Joy and Patsy, diligently ponder whom to issue work to.

Miss Rachel and 'Miss' Susie finally finish their year of sponsoring the slowest Panorama in the World.

West, Bell, J. Turner, Petrey, Money, Davis, Morgan, Campbell, Franklin, Nichols, Folmar, L. Turner, Butler, Graydon, Jeffcoat, Hicks, our Panorama staff, are pretty good at just standing around.

Don't let them fool you, the boys can't read and the girls can't type. Is this any way to run a sports staff?

"Leave out the dirty jokes, Lois," says copy editor Martha Morgan as the two seniors write for the Panorama.

Feature editors, Lenore, Anne, and Melissa, work hard in combining old Panorama ideas with new ones.

Lynne, Jo, Kay, Diane, and Linda are in charge of drawing up and planning the different classes. We call them Class editors.

Class of '58 Returns to Alma Mater.

The Seniors of '68 welcomed the Class of '58 to an activity filled Homecoming day of excitement and reminiscing October 8.

An assembly program, featuring the LHS Glee Club in their first public performance, kicked off the festivities. The honorees then joined in a snakeline to the football field where LHS cheerleaders led a pep rally, with a pep talk by Stan Sikes. Immediately following the rally, the former classmates enjoyed food and fellowship at a tea in the Home Economics building.

Before the game the classmates gathered for the traditional camp stew supper in the cafeteria. After a thrilling tiger victory over Brundidge, the former LHS'ers rounded out their Homecoming day at a dance, featuring "The Run-aways" from Troy, Alabama.

After the last number, the LHS alumni said regretful good-byes, leaving their Homecoming only another wonderful memory.

Beasley Reigns over Homecoming

Reigning over this day of days, was Queen Linda Beasley, junior and her attendants Anne Franklin, senior, and Sherry Kent, sophomore. Sharing the spotlight was Miss Football, Bonnie Bagwell, senior. Linda and her attendants were elected by the student body. Bonnie was chosen by the varsity football players. Homecoming 1968 climaxed a week of planning, practicing, and decorating.

Happiness Is... A Tiger Victory

The 1968 "L" Club Banquet featured Bill Buchanan who is Publicity Chairman from Troy State University. Captain Joe Money extended the welcome, while Coach Sammy Carr reviewed the season's statistics. Senior football players and cheerleaders were honored. Trophies were awarded to David West, Hamp Russell, and Steve Miller.

The Luverne Gymnasium became a discotheque as new and old "L" Club members and their dates danced the boo-ga-loo, shing-a-ling, and skate to the music of the Psychic Impressions. "L" Club girls were in charge of intermission.

Bill Buchanan pauses before giving thoughts well-worth remembering.

Our leader speaks.

Exactly what kind of statistics is Coach Carr referring to?

"L" Clubbers "Shake a tail feather."

Is it or isn't it? Only the punch-makers know for sure.

Betcha can't eat just one!

The Psychic Impressions fill the gym with the psychedelic sound.

"Birth of the Blues" was sung by Cheryl Moore at our own Pat O'Brien nightclub alias Jr. Sr. Banquet.

Jr. vice-president, Steve Miller, was voted school tattler. The Seniors did not enjoy his telling unusual situations about them.

It's part of the entertainment for the banquet. Their dance to the Stripper set the mood for the evening.

Kay was sort of hurt that she did not get to sing at the banquet; so she just did an improptu little number during the lead out.

There isn't anything like dancing under a starry sky is there Mahlon, ole buddy?

I guess Bob Perdue lost another contact. But maybe they are dancing.

The band for our Jr. Sr. dance, The Daring Young Men, tune up to get ready to put out good music.

Awards Presented at FFA Banquet

The FFA father-son banquet which recognizes outstanding vocational agricultural students was held April 12, in the cafeteria. Mr. Lowell Carter, advisor, presented the awards.

David West and Johnny Tranum received the State Farmer award. Johnny also won the Chapter and County Corn growing championship. Wendell Bond was the Chapter County Public Speaker.

The FFA officers give their talks, but their minds are on the food.

Joe Money gives another welcoming address. This time it's as Chapter President.

There were a few women in the crowd! These are the wives of the invited guests.

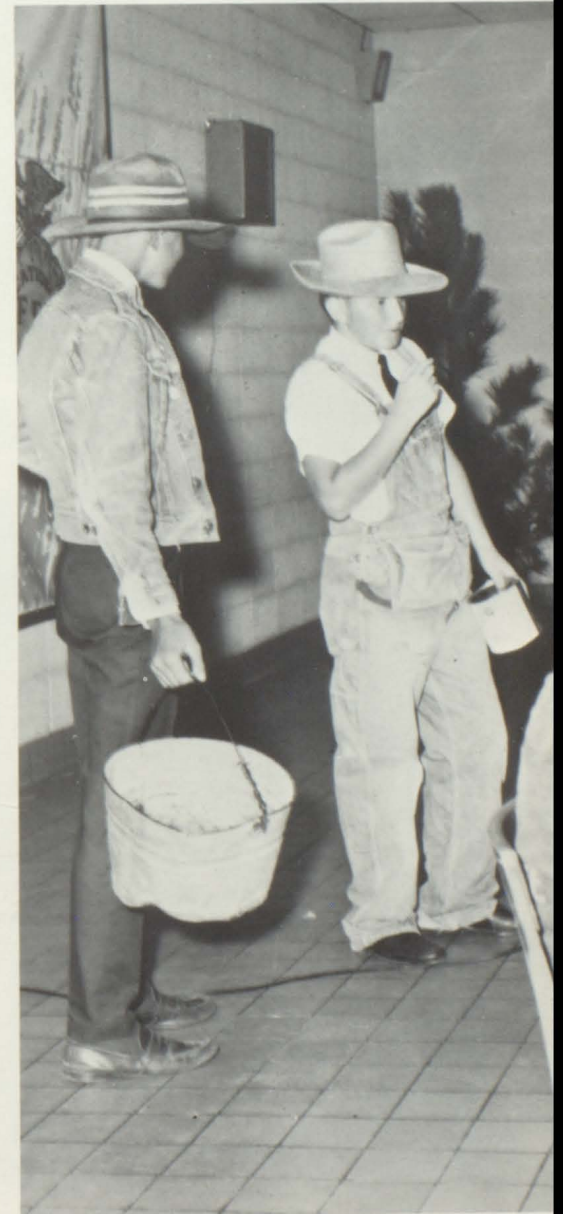

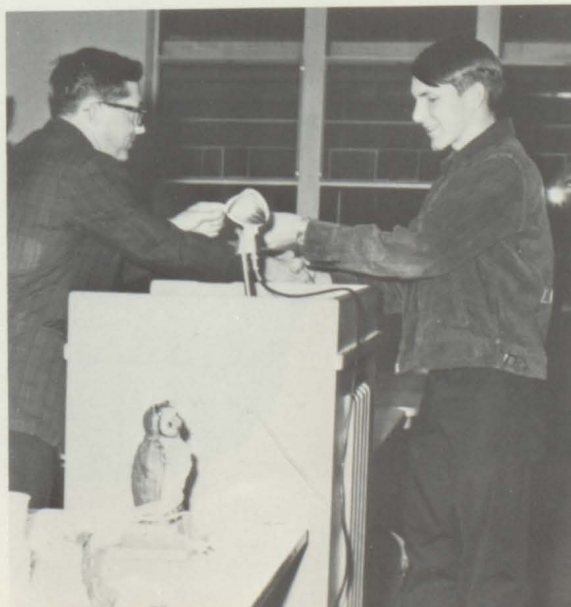

Linda McSwean always was lucky! As FFA sweetheart she was the sole LHS girl invited to this all boy affair.

Although these servers seem to be eyeing the food rather cautiously there was nothing wrong with it. They ate heartily.

Washington - New York Tour the Best Yet!

This year's educational tour was our fourth one, and one of the best! The tour was very entertaining as well as educational. We saw first hand many things and places that we have been studying in social studies and literature.

Next to "politics", Washington is most famous for its sightseeing! In Williamsburg history steps out of the classroom and comes to life. New York City fascinated us.

Being beautiful is certainly not the only thing LHS Top Beauty, Linda Beasley knows how to do. Linda is also a skilled hair stylist, a sales girl at a local department store, and a friendly well-liked student at Luverne High.

Only a Junior, Linda was also elected Homecoming Queen and reigned over the fall festivities this year. She was an attendant in the Homecoming Court in her sophomore year.

Linda was selected as top Beauty at the 1968 Beauty Pageant, "The Wonderful World of Color," March 29. She was presented the coveted ribbon by pageant co-emcee, Johnny Nichols.

"World of Color" Is Pageant Theme

Beauty-Pageant 1968, "A Venture Over the Rainbow to the Wonderful World of Color," was presented March 29, under the direction of Mrs. Susie Petrey and Jim Head.

The color theme was carried out in script by emcees Johnny Nichols and Joe Money, in song and dance by 70 senior-high students, and, of course in the lovely gowns of the twelve beauties of LHS. Proceeds from the pageant, totaling $400.00, went to the Panorama staff who sponsored the program.

You know, if we hadn't had these people, we would not have a beauty pageant.

Tigers End '68 Season 6-3-1

Spurred on by a strong desire to win, the 1968 Tigers combined teamwork with ability, to finish the grid season with a winning record of six wins, three losses, and one tie.

For Head Coach Glen Daniel, this season, his thirteenth at Luverne, proved one of the luckiest yet.

Assisting Daniel in leading the victorious Tiger Team were Co-Captains Davis West and Joe Money.

Managers Joe Russell, Tom Perdue, Mike Norman, and Doug Brown, besides acting as water boys, are responsible for keeping up with equipment and washing the jerseys.

West limbers up his toe before the game.

The "Ref" closes in for the tackle, but West beats him to it.

Maybe if we all put our heads together, we can come up with a victory.

Seniors Shine in Final Grid Season

The senior players of '68 saved their best for last as they made their last season at LHS one to remember.

Two of the highest honors were captured by Seniors as Bob Perdue was selected by his teammates for Good Sportsmanship Award and David West received the Best Lineman Trophy.

When these twelve boys stood to be recognized at the annual football banquet the empty chairs reminded all that these places would be hard to fill.

Ending their high school football career are Senior players Johnny Tranum, Charles Duncan, Kline Jeffcoat, Joe Money, Charles Miller, Bob Perdue, Steve Helms, David West,

Danny Rogers, Robert Sikes, Eddie Lowery, Billy McSwean

Beth Lisenby, Sharon Mitchell, Sue Kendrick, KNEELING: Gloria Pynes, Nancy Miller, head, Melissa Speed.

Junior Cheerleaders Add Pep and Spirit

Cheering the Junior Team players to a 4-1 season were the enthusiastic Junior Team Cheerleaders headed by Nancy Miller, freshman.

Traveling became routine as they followed their team to two victories over Greenville and one over Brantley and Andalusia.

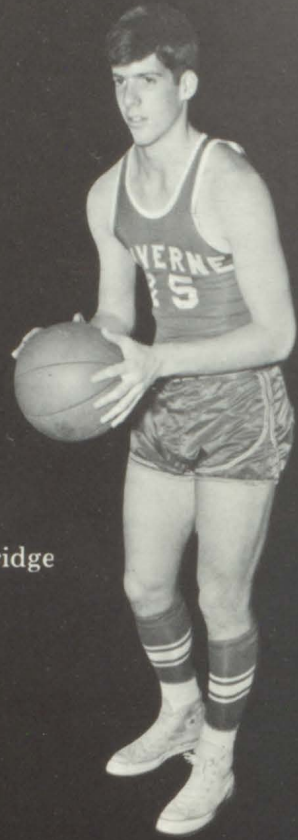

These eight girls assisted the varsity cheerleaders with pom-poms, half time shows, Homecoming, and pep rallies. They also joined in to help in the selling of Tiger booster badges.

Norman, Miller Lead "B" Team

Butch Norman and Steve Miller led the "B" Team in scoring for the 1968 season. The overall record for the team was seven wins and nine losses. Leading in average points scored per game were Butch Norman with 11.8 and Rick Morgan with 10.6. Also in the top five were Steve Miller with 10.0, Edward Speed with 7.8 and Warren Jackson with 6 per game.

Coached by Sammy Carr the eight boys composing the team defeated Troy twice and Hartford, Geneva, Greenville, Straughn, and Georgiana once.

Tickle him under his arm, Steve, and he won't block it.

Our "B" Team, composed of D. Brown, R. Morgan, E. Speed, B. Norman, M. Richburg, W. Jackson, S. Miller, F. Jeffcoat, and coached by Sammy Carr, compiled a 7-9 record.

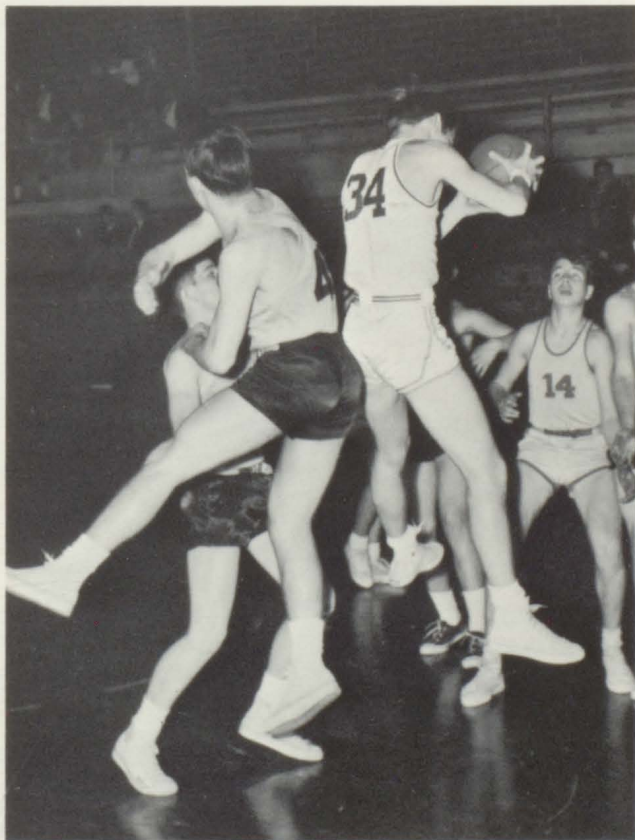

Our Jr. team, Russell, Brown, Jeffcoat, Morgan, Speed, Moman, Jeffcoat, Bodiford, D. Holland, Odum, Schofield, Simmons, Jackson, Norman, R. Holland, Perdue, Wright, Holliday, Watson, Morgan, Carpenter, Armstrong, and Lisenby show promise for the future as they established a 6-7 record.

Jr.'s Learn Skills

Rick Morgan, one of our top players, gets the ball again.

The Jr. Team Basketball Boys compiled a record of six wins and seven losses for the 67-68 season. High scorers for the team were Rick Morgan and Edward Speed.

These twenty-three boys gained experience that will be valuable to them as they graduate to the varsity team. They played against such teams as Andalusia, Straughn, Greenville, Brantley, Geneva.

Like a hungry Tiger Bill Jackson awaits Edward's rebound upon which he will pounce and devour.

Luverne High Nine Finish Season 7-6

The LHS baseball team finished their 1968 season with a winning record of seven wins and six losses. Leading pitcher for the team was Hamp Russell with a 4-1 record. Other pitchers included Wayne Rolling, 2-2, Alton Kersker, 1-2, and Larry Shirley, 0-1.

Larry Shirley led in batting averages with .500 pct., followed by David West with .464 pct. James Turner was the big hitter for the season with fifteen hits. David West had thirteen hits and Freddy Jeffcoat was third with eleven.

The Luverne nine began their season with a three game winning streak but lost their next two games. Then they hit another lucky streak with four wins, only to finish the season with a four game losing streak.

Happiness is being ahead 13-1 in the bottom of the third, right Coach?

We had a 7-6 season's record compliments of Kersker, Nichols, Jeffcoat, Miller, Jackson, Norman, Turner, Money, Lowery, Stallins, Shirley, Duncan, Ellison, McSwean, Rolling, and Speed.

It's the bottom of the third and Russell's at bat. The catcher's ready, so is the umpire. Okay, where's the baseball.

David West accepts a hard-earned Best Linesman Trophy from John Wise.

Hamp Russell was voted by his team as the Most Valuable basketball player.

Hamp Russell receives the Best Back Trophy from Lewis Gholston. He is the first junior to receive it.

The Senior team which lost only two games in its career was made of Hicks, Franklin, Haire, Ballard, Weaver, Bell, Morgan (manater), Jeffcoat, Tomlin, L. Turner, J. Turner, Burgans.

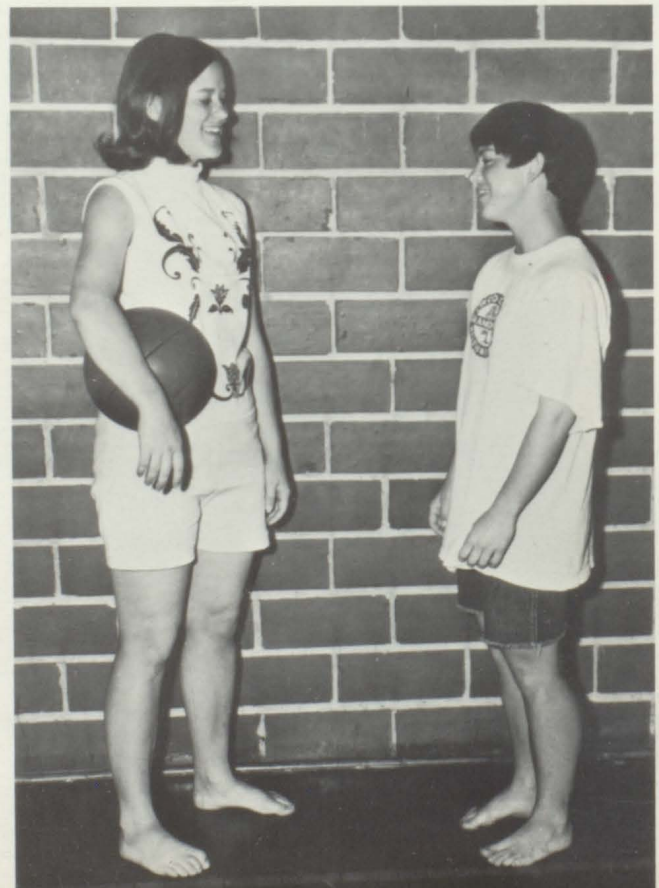

Co-captains of the victorious Sr. team, Tomlin and Hicks, happily remember their wins, big and small. They try to forget their two losses.

Senior Girls Win Basketball Trophy

Co-captains Sally Hicks and Lenore Tomlin piloted the Senior Girls' Basketball team to a thrilling victory of 12-11 over the Juniors to be LHS champions for the fourth time.

The '68 team has been victorious every year except for the seventh and eleventh grades. They won the Junior High Championship in grades 8 and 9 and the Senior High Trophy in their sophomore and senior years.

Most of the girls have been on the team since it was organized six years ago. The captains elected then have been unanimously re-elected each year. Consolation winner of the 1968 Tournament was the ninth grade and the Junior High Championship went to the eight grade girls.

The way people watch it, you'd think the ball was important. We like points better, personally.

Seventy five Junior I's invaded the halls of LHS in the fall of 1967, armed with notebooks, "mod" clothes, and eager spirits. They slowly worked their way into the school's life and took their place at the bottom of the ladder of Education.

Seventh graders found high school to have its advantages and disadvantages. Heading the list of advantages were drinks at recess, lockers, changing classes, study halls, non-compulsory lunches, pep rallies, and dances after ball games.

But there were also problems that one didn't have to worry with in grammar school. Six-weeks and mid-term tests, tardy passes, conduct grades in every class, and regulations, rules, and policies!

“Two down and four to go,” that is the field position of that Jr. II’s. It will take several well-executed plays to put them over the goal line; yet they are constantly acquiring and practicing skills that will help them get there. After a confusing year as seventh graders they have finally settled down to the routine of high school. They can now look down and laugh at the silly mistakes of the new Jr. I’s. They are beginning to take places of importance in the school. They can be Jr. team cheerleaders and hold keypositions on the Jr. football and basketball teams.

To be a Freshman is special. It's so special that it has its own name. A Jr. III. isn't just a Jr. III. he's a freshman. He's the senior of Junior High School. A freshman has privileges. He can select some of his courses, he can sing in the Glee Club, he can play varsity football. The freshman is special. He stands at the top of the Junior High world; yet he must not forget to look up and realize he is still below the bottom of the Senior High scale.

The Sophomore year is a year of transition. Tenth graders emerge from the chrysalis of Junior High to experience for the first time the prestige and privileges that come with entering Senior High School. These students try out their new wings as they take part in the election of varsity cheerleaders, and the nomination of beauties, favorites, and homecoming queen.

The sophomore year is also a year of maturing. It is a year of sweet sixteen parties, drivers license and single dating. Finally it is a year of learning, be it Shakespeare or the facts of life; and a year of hoping and looking to the future.

All through school you talk about the day when your class will plan the Jr.-Sr. Then one day you find yourself on a step-ladder draping streamers across the gym ceiling, and you realize that you are actually a Junior. There is only one step left. The juniors of '68 left evidence that they are capable of taking this step. They proved themselves in a record-breaking magazine sales campaign of $3400, and in the many places of leadership they filled. Juniors held key places on the TIGER RAG staff, in athletics, on the cheerleading squad, and in almost every extracurricular activity.

Exercises Feature Gifts, Gann, Stone Commencement Exercise

"The Golden Greats of '68" was the theme of the Class Night exercises this year. Awards were given to those elected by the class as "greats" and small gifts were presented to all the Seniors giftorians David West, Danny Rogers, and Charles Duncan.

At the second special exercise for the graduates, Reverend Jesse Gann of the First Baptist Church gave a challenging baccalaureate message. Class singers Lenore Tomlin and Bob Perdue sang duet. Methodist pastor Frank Arnold gave the invocation and benediction.

Dr. Ernest Stone, state superintendent of education, was the speaker at the graduation exercises, May 24. Principal C. W. Claybrook awarded diplomas to the 54 graduating Seniors, and Martha Morgan and Patsy Petrey gave the salutatory and valedictory addresses.

We decided Joe should be our emcee because he never got anything in school except for Co-Captain of football, Class President, . . .

Dean Martin Speed, Carol Burnette Petrey, Luccile Turner, and George Gobel Wilkerson, our Goldie Award awarders

Martha, who speaks her thoughts, can put them into poetry, too.

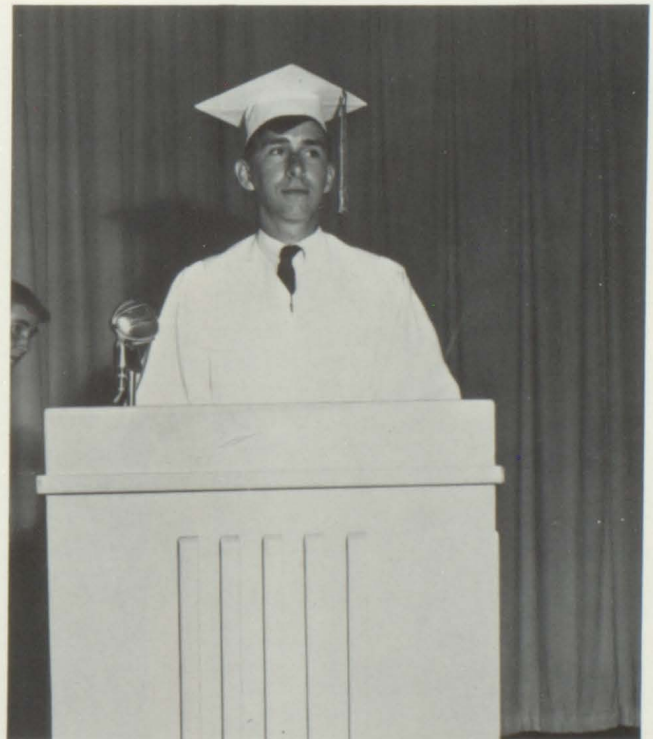

He hears all evil, sees all evil, tells all evil.

Lawyer, Robert Sikes, was so very kind as to make out our Last Will and Testament. Well, maybe we'd like to add a codicil.

We're rather glad Bucko didn't give a personal history of each of our class members!

Class dancer, Lynne, did a catch little dance to "The Good, The Bad, and The Ugly." (We had to enlarge the picture a lot because she's so little.

Oh look. See the robots. Pretty robots.

Looks like your older friends sort of got cropped out, doesn't it Dianne?

We had to have our program at night mainly because soloist Bob Perdue can't sing early in the morning.

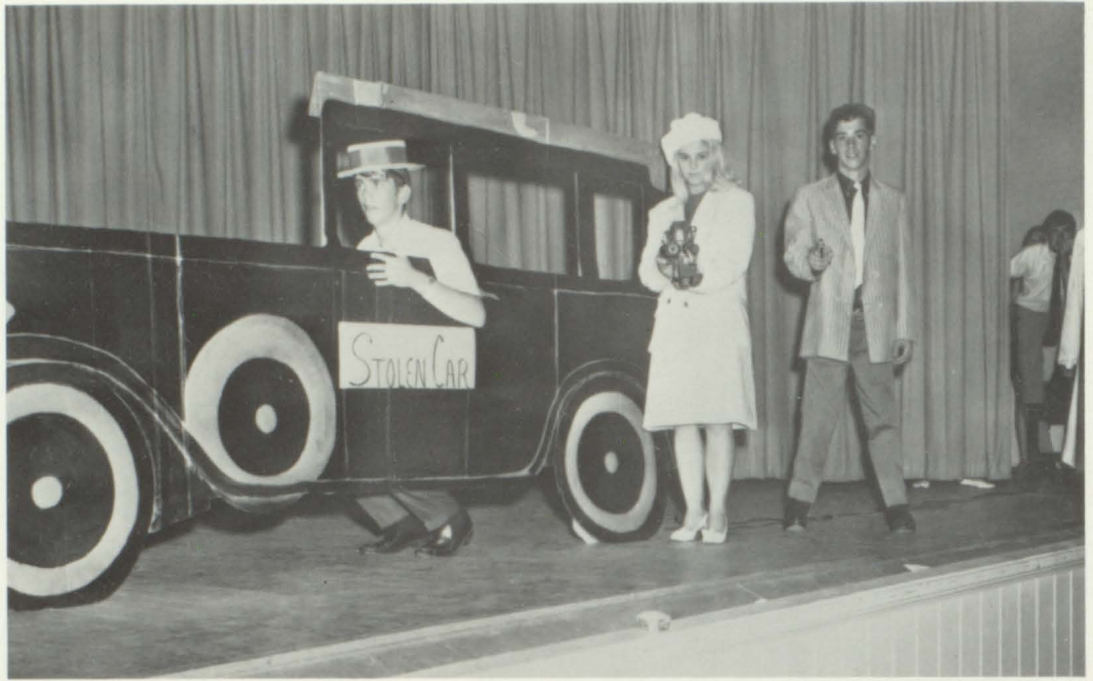

We're pretty proud of them. They beat out the Lennon Sisters for the Golden Great '68 Goldie Award.

Is this "What the World Needs Now"? We aren't sure.

Look Ma! 69% fewer cavities.

(Well, blondes have a lot more laughs anyway.) Class Comedians, Sally and Sonny, alias, Bonnie and Clyde, prepare to make their get away after robbing the Red Goose Blood Bank.

Two of our Giftorians, Charles Duncan and David West, give Melissa a pleasant surprise — some Army men to play with while her Army man's away.

Class pianist, Diane Butler, runs through a couple of songs. She plays by ear (but she uses her hands, too.)

Class History

One September day back in 1956 our mothers pushed us into something we did not really know too much about. A few of us had received a sample of what school was like while attending kindergarten. Our kindergarten class consisted of Joy Turner, Sally Hicks, Lynne Folmar, Charles Miller, Lois Turner, Johnny Nichols, Bill Norman, who was dismissed for kicking people in the leg, and Jill Perdue who quit because boys kept throwing bricks at her. To join us in our first year of this strange, new experience were: Raymond Trotter, Charlotte Gipson, Ronnie Campbell, Joanne Rogers, Dianne Rogers, Kline Jeffcoat, Charles Duncan, Johnny Tranum, Ronald Wilkerson, Sue Garner, Robert Sikes, Melissa Campbell, Karen Weaver, Patsy Petrey, Joe Money, Jo Jeffcoat, Linda Bell, Martha Morgan, Lenore Tomlin, Day Davis, Ann Franklin, Allen Kennedy.

Just in time to see Lois Turner kiss the boys until they cried were Steve Helms from Montgomery and Glenda Graydon from Ivy Creek.

In our second year Judy Simmons joined us, decided right quick that she did not like the set-up, and left. However, we did receive a few new permanent additions: Eddie Lowery from Greenville, Chris Curtis from Theodore, and Wanda Williamson from Ivy Creek.

Charles Miller came upon the conclusion that the second grade girls were not quite mature enough for him and he left for red hot Montgomery.

Linda Smith, who had heard how great our class was, decided to wait for us in the third grade.

In the fifth grade came Diane Butler, Lenore Paul, and Sonny Schofield from Rutledge, Janice Ballard and Sharon Kent from Chapel Hill, and Brenda Haire from Charleston, South Carolina.

When we reached the sixth grade we found six flunkies from the preceding class: Danny Rogers, David West, Bob Perdue, Butch Speed, John Bass, Jo Ann Burgans, and Ginger Kay Davis.

This was the year that the girls always had a big fight to see who got to sit in the cloak room with David West during lunch. Our sixth grade banquet was highlighted by the two hour bunny hop.

In the seventh grade lightning struck twice when Bonnie Bagwell and Lynda Pouncy came from Glenwood.

In the ninth grade William Moody and Bobby Beasley came from Montgomery. Sally Hicks, Lynne Folmar, and Linda Bell were elected Jr. Team cheerleaders and in the 10th grade Sally and Linda were elected Varsity Cheerleaders. This year Ronnie Uptain migrated from Troy.

In the 11th grade Charles Miller returned to find the girls very much to his liking. Joy Turner and Johnny Nichols went to Girls' State and Boys' State. Bonnie Bagwell was high in the magazine sales.

In the 12th grade disaster struck again when we were joined by Jeanette Jolley from Albertville and Judy Simmons returned. This year Butch Speed and Johnny Tranum learned how to play a new game — ring around the flag-pole.

Joe Money was elected Class President for the second year in a row and Lynne Folmar was elected head cheerleader. Sally Hicks was our only other cheerleader. Bonnie Bagwell was the only girl to represent our class as Beauty for three years.

In football Bob Perdue was elected for the Good Sportsman Award and David West received the Best Lineman Trophy, Outstanding Senior, and Top Rebounder Award. We had the best basketball team since 1964.

Martha Morgan was one out of 20 selected from 200 Top Seniors as a state finalist in the BIRMINGHAM NEWS Search for Excellence contest. Linda Bell received a BPW scholarship and Melissa Campbell and Johnny Nichols were elected for Citizenship honors. Melissa also received the Crisco Award.

We have had many sad experiences and many happy experiences since that fateful day in September of 1956 when we started on our journey through school. Now we are almost through our senior year — something that we have looked forward to these many years. As we say good-bye to the future seniors of LHS we know that we are saying good-bye to a place we all love, to the teachers who have been second mothers to us, and as we enter into the world for the first time, really alone, we know what these 12 years have meant to us. Our class will continue to make history in the future just as it has in the past.

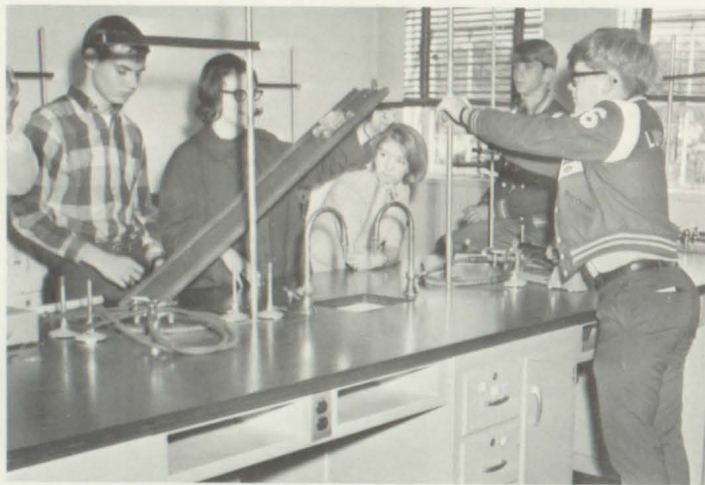

Class Historian
Johnny Nichols

Seniors Sample Life at the Top

What's life like at the top? It's a mad rush of classes, homework, clubs, and parties. It's pressure, headaches, bad nerves, and fun.

Seniors occupy a unique place in the LHS society. They are the elite group. These students are truly at the top — not just in respect and privileges but in leadership and responsibility.

Seniors realize the importance of accepting the responsibilities that go along with their high position. However, they still manage to find "fun-time" to make their last year at LHS one to remember!

Playing with toy cars at their age?

The Sandman and Bob are best friends.

Three's a crowd.

Sport offers West more of his "infallible advice."

Who says America's children don't walk enough?

I know my Democracy terms are somewhere in here . . . I hope!

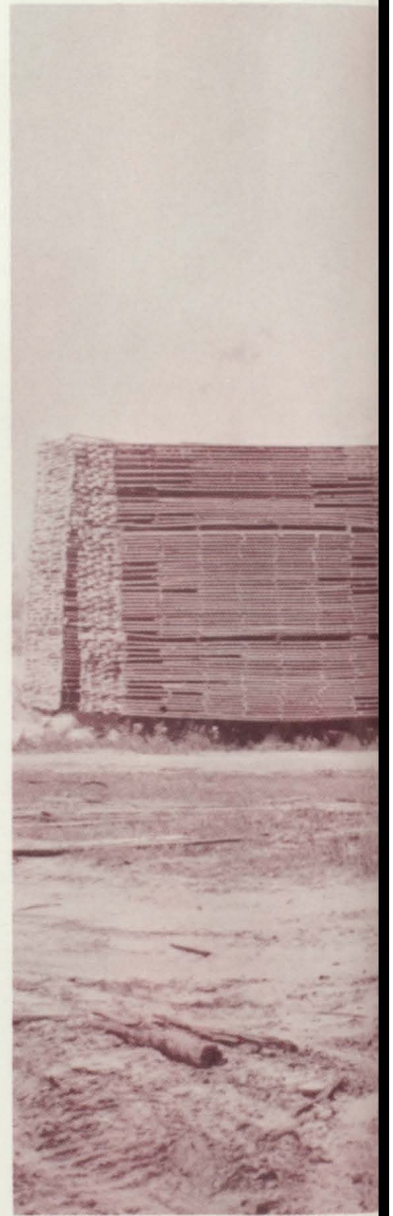

YOU're right, this isn't a class — just recess. And Steve takes full advantage of the rest.

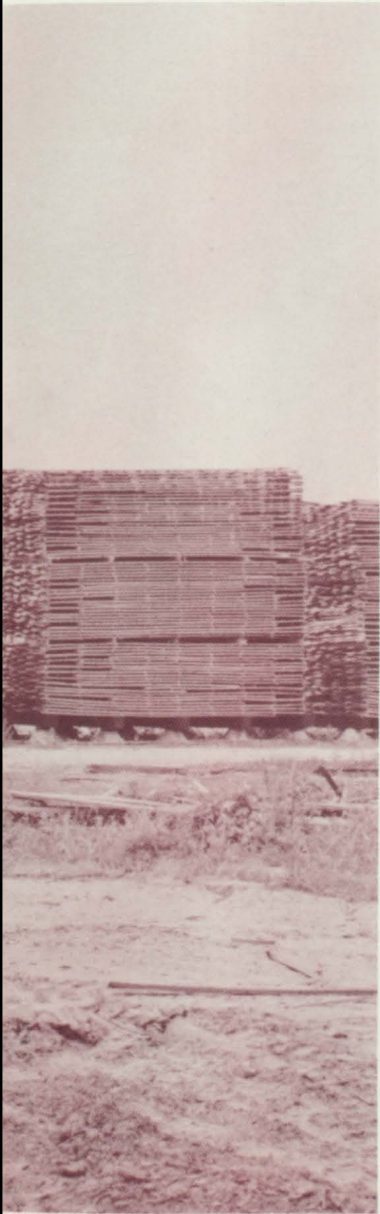

Why's everybody looking at you, Kay?
