THE MAIN EVENT

1980 BEAUTY PAGEANT

Darrin were you that uninterested?

Craig was your vision blurred? You got the wrong mic.

Craig shows us how Coach Brown showed him to stand.

WOW! What splits and legs.

We really had enough during the Beauty Pageant!

This is what LHS has to offer in innocent dolls?

Lord have mercy, ain't we cute!

DEDICATED TO SANDRA HOPKINS

BECAUSE OF YOU, BABE, ALL BECAUSE OF YOU

Because of you, I feel like givin'!
Because of you, life's worth livin'!
Because of you, I'm never blue.
Because of you, babe, all because of you!

Because of you, life's a rhyme!
Because of you, I walk your line.
Because of you, I'm all glowin'.
Because of you, my love's a-growin'!
Because of you, it's just us two!
Because of you, babe, all because of you.

Because of you, time flies when you're having fun.
Because of you, I'm all undone!
Because of you, I feel so new!
Because of you, babe, because of you!

- Sandra Hopkins

Sandra Hopkins

She was always herself. She didn't have time to pretend to be someone else, or even to wish she could be. We joked at her, made fun of her, and yet deep down we knew that we were wrong and maybe just envied the way that she was. From the first grade on she was just another kid in school. One we could depend on, and sorts just be there when she needed us. She was strong, bull headed, and charming in very special ways, ways only a few of us were able to gain a part of, and experience.

Her cheerful giggle still sounds in the halls and classrooms, the sound of her voice in the choir room, her God-given talent in the band room, and the side of her that most of us grew to know, "just plain Sandra," is bonded in our hearts.

She never let you down. Her word was a strong as her heart, and worth more to us now, than if she could have bought our happiness for us.

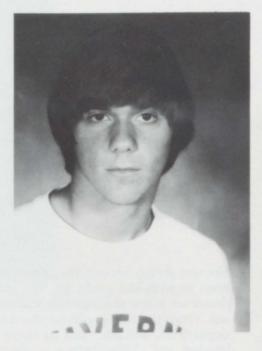

When Sandra departed from us, she didn't go alone. She took with her a piece of our hearts that we'll never be able to fill again. But she left us fifteen years of memories of how she was at first, and what she grew to be.

Sandra is engraved in our hearts, and when we march down the aisles of LHS our last year in 1982, Sandra will be graduating with us, and she will always live in us, as long as God allows us to be.

Here is our very own Coach Brown counting his gray hairs.

 $\mbox{Mrs.}$  Bland tells  $\mbox{Mrs.}$  Carter all the things that her group of boys have done to her room.

 $\mbox{Mr.}$  Butts- Johnny Kilpatrick is up to his old questions again and being nosy.

Tommy Norris, Craig Luster, and Craig Norris are all glad to graduate they are racing to see who can leave first.

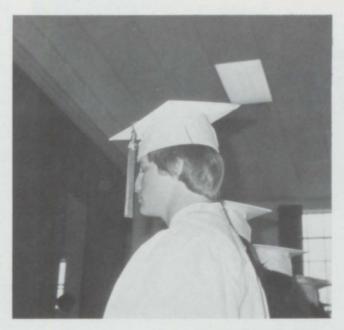

Our own sweet Teresa Mathews- Motor Mouth.

SENIOR'S LAST LUNCH

Dig in Peggy and keep on talking Sheila.

Now Lynne don't get sentimental on us.

Smile Dannette.

Johnny and Darrin just can't wait their hungry.

What is wrong Coach Brown?

Fish Face is getting ready to eat he is losing his tie

We can tell Deborah is hungry she is already moving her belt around.

We see Teresa our very own dinner bell is at the front of the line.

GRADUATION - 1980

Mike Kilpatrick was our Valedictorian he also received awards for Mathematics, the Billy Beasley Scholastic Award and Mike was our President.

Anita Thomas was our Salutatorian she also received the Commercial Award.

Coach Sport gave his last great speech to the Seniors.

Dr. C. C. Baker, Assistant State Superintendent of Education State of Alabama was our guest speaker. We all really enjoyed what Dr. Baker had to say to us.

Johnny Kilpatrick won the Blue Chapter Agriculture Award.

Jessie McKinnon won the Gold Chapter Agriculture Award.

Jill Killough won the Art Award.

Lynne Thompson received awards for Band Girl, Choir Girl and also Lynne won second place in Oral Interpretation at the Lurleen B. Wallace English Tournament.
