Principal of Eufaula High School

There are things a man must be if he is responsible for the growth of six hundred young people. Aside from the daily activities of a principal he must have an open door and an open mind. Planning, guiding, directing ... concerned about every individual at E.H.S. and all its functions ... He must be a strong man providing a good learning situation ... equal justice to all, including the bearers of green slips ... firm discipline ... kindness and understanding ...

A Leader - A Guide - A Friend.

FACULTY

Man is not an island - distant and alone. Instead he is gregarious - reaching out his heart and soul and mind to those about him. His heart must be touched; his soul must be broadened. Man needs someone to share his triumphs and ease his defeats. Fortunate, indeed, is he whose hand is received in the clasp of friendship.
