Small Town Talk

2 Summer

Mom gets the news of a speeding ticket, bringing your cell phone to school, or even just saying something wrong to the teacher and getting sent to the office, before you even make it to your house. Gossip goes throughout the school so quickly and then out into the world and small town of Eufaula.

Summer 3

Eufaula is a small town that is a place for gossip. Anything that wants to be known, needs to be known or is supposed to be a secret will be uncovered in a small town. Somebody's watching!

Summer passes and one remembers one's exuberance

Summer is a time to relax and recover from the school year. It is also a time to prepare for the year to come. Some young people play, some work to save money for events during the year. Some people find their talents or explore their future. Weather your swimming or boating, fishing or

August 4, 2004
EHS students are stressing over unfinished summer reading that is due 8 hours from now for Mrs. Whaley.

August 5, 2005
Students wake up bright and early for the first day back to school.

Jaelyn Williams Welcomes her fellow schoolmates back to school at the first assembly of the year.

The 2004-2005 school year was a busy time for our Tiger Representatives and SGA members.

The Tiger Reps, originally sponsored by Mrs. Kristi Partrick, have a new sponsor, Mrs. Whaley. They conducted meetings, provided snacks for the teachers in the teacher's lounge, greeted fans at football and basketball games, helped conduct graduation, and assisted with the 9th grade orientation over the summer.

The 2004-2005 EHS SGA, under the supervision of Mrs. Holland, had a very exciting year. They planned Homecoming, organized the multicultural assembly, provided Christmas gifts for a less fortunate child, and hosted a Teacher of the Month election.

President Chance Stephenson

I believe in the future of agriculture, with a faith born not of words but of deeds-- achievements won by the present and past generations of agriculturists; in the promise of better days through better ways, even as the better things we now enjoy have come to us from the struggles of former years.

I believe that to live and work on a good farm, or to be engaged in other agricultural pursuits, is pleasant as well as challenging; for I know the joys and discomforts of agricultural life and hold an inborn fondness for those associations which, even in hours of discouragement, I cannot deny.

Ciara's new song "Goodies" was popular over the summer.

Students came back to school to find many new faces on the teaching staff.

The movie Harry Potter and the Prisoner of Azkaban came out in June of 2004.

Kenyatta Daniels leads the band onto the field before a game.

Amanda Elmore marches onto the field. Here's a little hint: it's safer to march with your eyes open.

Euffie dances on the sidelines as the band plays after a touchdown.

Thea Brown takes a break from practice to tie her shoe. We wouldn't want her to trip out on the field.

Band members listen attentively as Mr. Gavin leads them in the classroom.

The clarinet players wait for their cue to play.

Floyd practices playing his tuba during class.

"Desperate Housewives" became a popular TV show with students at EHS during the summer.

"Let's Go" by Lil' John was well known by most EHS students after summer break.

Rascal Flatts' "God Bless the Broken Road" was one of EHS students' favorite country songs.

Kendra Flurry has become an expert at twirling and throwing her baton. The key is not dropping it.

Justin Clark's lips ought to be numb by the time he gets through playing his trumpet at this football game.

The drum line practices hard during band camp to perfect their part in the band's performances.

RD DAYS NIGHT...

Desmond Frost may look small, but he's got to have big lungs to blow enough air into that big tuba.

Karnisha Hubbard has fun dancing with a boa on the 50 yard line.

The Eufaula High School Mighty Tiger Marching Band starts preparing before most students even think about going back to school. As soon as the school year ends, the band director, Russ Gavin, begins selecting the music for next year's show. Then, preparations for the marching show begins. Every step has to be perfect before the band members report to band camp two weeks before the new school year begins. One week goes to the rookies to teach them to march properly. The next week, the entire band joins in to learn the music and marching routine. This is where we get these great stories that start, "This one time, at band camp..."

Blink 182's "Miss You" was a well known rock song this summer.

The New TV show Extreme Makeover: Home Edition has been a big hit with EHS students.

Alan Hicks demonstrates what band is all about, rooting on the football team.

Eva is the new, hot model this year

The trumpet section blows with all their might to make themselves heard over everyone else in the band room.

Shae Thornton looks like he's getting hot under the sweating sun during band camp

Kenyatta Daniels tries to keep track of the game while conducting the band. I hope she doesn't fall. That's a long way to the ground.

Indian Summer

Rachel Dansby and Matt Houston have a good time during the band's third quarter break. Hey, even musicians get tired now and then.

Joe Iby also had an important trumpet solo in the band's Beatles show.

Brandon Thomas, graduate of the class of 2004, teaches the drum line how to keep a beat. You would think they already know how to do that!

Matt Houston follows along as Christine Wood shows him how to really play a bass drum.

Rockin' With

EHS students were surprised to find our old principal, Mr. Atkins, back at EHS this year.

Everyone was talking about the movie The Notebook when they returned to school.

Sept. 27
EHS vs Bruton
EHS won 43-13

The brass section of the band put on a great performance during a break pep rally.

Rico Bobbins looks a little confused. Oh, wait, he's a percussionist. That explains it.

The flute players can't take their eyes off of their music. It must be really interesting.

Alan Hicks seems really happy about standing at attention. At band camp you can stand like this for hours.

The symbol players are a big help to the drummers during a break pep rally. Being known as a symbol monkey has got to be bad though.

The band picks up their instruments to play the fight song after the football team scores a touchdown.

The marching band practices nearly everyday of the week after school during football season. It can last until 8:00 pm some nights. They perform at every football game, in the stands and on the field during halftime. After football season ends, the band does various things. They travel to many competitions in many different cities and states. The brass section breaks off to form the jazz band. It plays at concerts and honored events in the spring. School ends, and the cycle starts all over again.

The EHS cheerleaders have a wonderful season. They have many awesome events. Some were dramatic, and exciting. A cheerleaders season begins early, even before school starts, with cheer camp and summer practices. The cheerleader won an award at the UCA cheer camp. Winning encouraged the girl to continue all their hard work. They also had many stressful hours of practices. A few cheerleaders struggled to master choreography.

EHS students celebrate the Tiger football team an entire week. The week is filled with preparations for the homecoming parade, pranks, and other student activities. The Olympics is the theme for Homecoming 2004! Throughout the week students participate in theme-oriented days like Toga day, Tacky day, and Hat day. Each class stays after school and works on their float for the parade. The seniors won the float contest. At the end of the week the school is buzzing with talk about the big game and who is going to be crowned homecoming queen. Friday evening all the predictions come to an end as Allie Dowling is crowned queen and the tigers pull off a win against the Russell County Warriors!

Miss Tigrette represents the beauty and grace of Eufaula High School. Lovely dresses and casual wear were modeled, their dancing skills were displayed, and speaking skills were spotlighted in private interviews. The girls' poise, elegance, and charm were the most shown skills of the night. No matter how much skill all of the girls had, there could only be one crowned Miss Tigrette, and three runners up from each grade. The contestants were like the Hollywood stars, beautiful in every way. It doesn't take a crown to make you beautiful, and it doesn't take a title to make you a winner.

Not many students at EHS realize we have a functioning Latin Club. The Latin club this year is smaller because there is only one available Latin class. The smaller size does not stop the achievements of the club. Most of the members have completed Latin I and II. This year the main focus of the club was trying to find ways to help in the community. The Latin Club help to raise money for Relay for Life by sponsoring a bake sale.

This year the foreign language club split into the French and Spanish clubs. Each club participates in various activities throughout the year. The clubs still have some things in common. Both clubs have food days. The students bring their favorite Spanish or French food to share with their class mates.

Spanish students took time from their work to make moroccos.

The French club also participates in the Relay for Life.

Each club also had a representative to share a greeting with the school during the multicultural assembly.

EHS basketball cheerleaders are a group to themselves. They are responsible for making the crowds in the gym yell and root their team on as loudly as possible. They also rev up the students at pep rallies during fourth block and at break. Part of the reason the basketball teams do as well as they do is because of the women that support them and motivate them to play well. Isn't that what cheerleaders are for?

Is cheerleading a sport?

“sport” is defined as a “Physical activity that is governed by a set of rules or customs and often engaged in competitively.”

The skills involved in Cheerleading leave no doubt that Cheerleaders are exceptional athletes. To perform their activities, they must be as strong as any football player, as poised as any dancer and as flexible as the best gymnasts. They are athletes by every definition of the word.

Jeneane and Jeanette practice together so that they will be ready for their game

Before, During, and After...

On game day, one might hear a Lady Tiger say, "Boy I can't wait till the game. I'm gonna start the game off right."

If you were fortunate enough to watch the Lady Tigers in action out of town, you would think the majority of the girls doubled as cheerleaders. The girls who didn't start off playing made sure their teammates knew they were supporting them.

The friendships and encouragement doesn't end when the girls walk off the court. They comment on each other's playing skills briefly and then they stay to support varsity boys, despite winning or losing a game. In days following the games, the concentration still remains basketball. The girls focus on upsetting their next opponent. Practicing countless hours, trying to improve shots, and determination carries the girls through each game and all the way to playoffs.

These ladies don't take a day off. During the season you can bet you will hear these ladies talking about only one thing...basketball.

Have you ever wondered what it is to be an athlete? The Webster Dictionary defines it as, "one who engages in sports or other exercises, especially those requiring physical agility and strength." That sure sounds like the athletes at EHS, but our athletes have a different definition of what it takes to make it around here. They think that one must be hard working, determined, loyal, intelligent, and willing. These students put in hours of practice after school and on weekends. They care about their grades. If they have below a C average, they are no longer on the team. They know that it takes everyone for the team to be successful. No one person can do it alone, so they watch out for their team mates. These kids are also role models. They know that the other students look up to them and turn to them to see what to do next. Our athletes have learned to lead by example. Not only do they have responsibilities at school, they also take on a load out in the real world. They are some one's child or sibling. They have jobs they go to everyday after school. They help lead their church youth groups. Somehow with all of this the athletes at EHS still come out on top. They only have one question, "Do YOU have what it takes?"

Historically Speaking

ENGLISH AND HISTORY ARE FINE ARTS CLASSES

All of the teachers in the history department are different, no two teach the same way, no two have the same personality. Thank goodness for that. Mrs. Cooley was one of the new teachers, and the guys thought she was young and good-looking, but when they got in her class, they saw she was all business and smart, too.

Ms. Hangen was also new, and she earned a reputation for being tough but highly knowledgeable about history. Mrs. Teat and Ms. Lowman are old hands at teaching history, since they have both been here for four years now, but they still know how to inspire and motivate their students. Mrs. Teat builds a covered wagon on her classroom floor and gets her kids to fill it using their imaginations. Ms.

Lowman is a little different. Her class sees history in the room because she dresses up in period appropriate costumes, plays music of the times, and even teaches the dance steps of the times. Mr. Griffin and Coach Vinson are more conservative but they still have fun in their classes. The new wild man of the group would have to be Mr. Williams. He is in a class of his own. Using music and art as well as literature and movies, he inspires all the students to learn to think for themselves and analyze history through the records left by other artists, musicians, etc.

Mrs. Cooley let her classes know how she felt about history. Franklin Delano Roosevelt coined the term "normalcy" when he spoke of getting the country back to the normal way of doing things. Mrs. Cooley took that term and let people know that normal is different for each and every person.

Mrs. Teat listens with humor as Callie Burkhalter begs for less homework. Ms. Lowman gets into her discussion of JFK's assassination. Who did it? You decide based on the recreation done in class.

English literature sets the stage for Mrs. Whaley, Mrs. Holland, Mr. Lowery, Ms. Hudson, Ms. Lett, Mr. Wooten and Mrs. Sims to show off their eloquent flair for the dramatic.

Shakespeare, Faulkner, Maya Angelou are just a few of the enigmatic writers that students at EHS are exposed to during their time in English.

All of the English teachers teach literature, grammar, and more, but they also make sure they have time to work one-on-one with students who need extra attention. Ms. Hudson is speaking with Jaclyn Sanders about an upcoming assignment.

One major component of both English and history is the research required. Mrs. Harbor helps all of the students with computer and hard copy research materials when the students are assigned reports, biographies, reviews or other writing assignments.

Study Hard!

Math is another subject that is formulas and facts. That doesn't mean that is boring or dull, though. Amelia Dixon and Mallorie Slocum show that imagination can be used anywhere. Anthony Streeter proves that all things are possible when one just takes the time to study. Way to go, Anthony.

Mrs. Bridges, Mrs. Williams, Mr. Jones, Mr. Senn, Mrs. Calton, Ms. Wood, and Mrs. Harris all do what Mrs. Marshall is - plan and prepare for classes so that the students will learn the material and excell in the subject. Mrs McKinney was replaced by Mrs. Walters in Fall semester.

Students like the one here also play a part in the learning process when they study, do homework and listen in class. Maybe that's how we have so many of our kids go to college and do well.

Soccer is a head to toe sport

Brian Taylor searches for an open team mate before punting the ball back into play.

This year's soccer team was a mish mash of talent, personalities, and competition. The players were very dedicated and put a lot of hard work and time into this year's season. The team broke many previous records set by past teams. This year they scored more goals, had more wins, and had the more shut outs than any other EHS soccer team has ever had. The soccer team played their hearts out this year and were undefeated in the area. The MVP this year was Rob Smola. The most outstanding team players were Brooks Cole, Stanton Burns, Jorge Medina, Ryan Puhr, and Blake Sims. All of the players had an excellent season. Just because they were not named above does not mean they did not play a significant role in helping the Tigers become undefeated.

1. Rob Smola looks back over his shoulder to receive a pass made by Eric Betts. 2. Ryan Puhr is ready to burst from his position on the field to assist his team mates in making the ball travel toward the goal.

Toaster Missanelli skillfully keeps control of the ball while taking it down field, making catching him hard work for his opponents.

After making a successful attempt at a goal, Stanton Burns, Ryan Puhr, Brooks Cole, Kevin Walsh, Toaster Missanelli, and Jorge Medina hustle back to center field to await the next kick off.

was originally scheduled to go on this weekend, but it was cancelled.

Ryan Puhr fights off an opponent while trying to pass the ball to another member of his team without it being recovered by the opposing team.

Brooks Cole concentrates on making contact with the ball before sending it sailing closer to the goal.

Brian Taylor gets time away from the goal to help his team get the lead over the rival school.

We Are The Champions

Blake Sims prepares to kick the ball down field, hopefully landing the ball in perfect position for a goal.

Jesse Ebersole and Blake Sims charge at the ball making sure the Tigers get it before the other team even has a chance.

DECA

DECA is an exciting and rewarding program at Eufaula High School. Tim Klages sponsors the many diverse students who join each year. Students learn leadership, communication, and business skills often needed in the fields of marketing and management. DECA members have brought numerous medals and awards from DECA competitions nation wide home to EHS.

DECA isn't just a club about business. The club has participated in many services this year to Eufaula. Because Channel TV 63 does not air anymore, DECA runs a radio station, the Late 98. It runs from 12 am -1pm and has shows such as the sports show that Will Hart and Eric Betts host. Also, the Pilgrimage is a community service project that DECA participates in each year. Three quarters of DECA members help in the Pilgrimage.

William Hart & Marjorie Pomeroy

I will never forget my experiences at Eufaula High, from the hours I spent running up and down the basketball court to competing in DECA all over the country. The halls and classrooms are filled with memories of fellow students and teachers, many of which leave me laughing hysterically. In four years, I have learned what a school can offer, not just from a book, but from the "trials and tribulations" of just growing up. Thank you Mom, Dad, and Robert for supporting everything I do. Thanks Eufaula High for all the opportunities and people I won't ever forget! Go Tigers! - Marjorie

I feel fortunate to have spent the last four years at Eufaula High School. I appreciate the efforts of my teachers not only in furthering my education, but also in preparing me for life. Graduation is an ending as well as a beginning. As our time here ends, I am proud to be a member of the Class of 2005. The memories we share will last a lifetime. We may be completing our high school days, but we are beginning to face new challenges and to embrace new opportunities ahead. Thanks to EHS for supporting and encouraging us along the way. - Will Mimi Martin can't decide between white and clear duct tape. It's amazing how a basketball gym can be transformed into a fantasy room with some shiny paper and duct tape!

Amber Weaver is hard at work. She wants to make sure this is the best prom ever for her special friend, Corey Gray.

Amanda Elmore takes a break from cutting and hot gluing. She burned her fingers more times than she counted.

Brittany Thomas and Stephanie Thomas were the main starmakers during prom preparations. They can be credited with almost fifty stars. Wow that was a lot of burned fingers.

Ashley Northcutt helped out gluing, cutting, and star making. She stayed busy for the many days of decorating.

STANTON BURNS
ESCORTS STACY WILLIS

SENIOR KENDRA HURRY IS ESCORTED BY BRAD JONES.
SHE IS DISPLAYING THE SEXY
SEVENTIES THIS YEAR.

THIS YEAR EUFAULA HIGH STUDENTS HAD NOT ONLY THE MEMBERS OF OUR SCHOOL ATTENDING THE PROM BUT WE ALSO HAD PEOPLE FROM OUTSIDE THE SCHOOL COME AS DATES. NOW THAT MIGHT NOT SEEM TO BE SUCH A BIG DEAL - THERE ARE OTHER SCHOOLS IN THE AREA WHO KNOW OUR STUDENTS, WHO ARE FRIENDS WITH OUR STUDENTS, WHO DATE OUR STUDENTS. THIS YEAR IS A LITTLE DIFFERENT. THIS YEAR WE HAD A GUY, PAUL FROM ENGLAND, LIVERPOOL TO BE SPECIFIC, COME TO THE PROM. HE HAD BEEN THE LONG DISTANCE PEN PAL OF OUR VERY OWN BABRAE THOMAS AND WHEN SHE MENTIONED THE BIG DAY HE NOT ONLY SAID HE WOULD COME BUT MADE PLANS TO SPEND TWO WEEKS WITH HER AND HER FRIENDS. HE BROUGHT ALONG AA FRIEND, TONY, AND HE WENT TO THE PROM WITH AMANDA. ALL IN ALL THE NIGHT WAS A GOOD TIME HAD BY ALL AND WAS AN EVENT TO BE REMEMBERED BY THOSE WHO HAD NEVER BEFORE EXPERIENCED SUCH A TIME.

VERONICA KELLEY IS ESCORTED BY SHAE THORNTON.

BABRAE THOMAS IS ESCORTED
BY PAUL DOBLE FROM LIVERPOOL

CATHERINE JONES AND CLAYTON
SLADE AMANDA GANDY AND JUSTIN
BROWN JAMIE STEADMAN AND RANDY
ZELLNER

ERIC BETTS ESCORTING
MARJORIE POMEROY

NICK OANSBY AND SAMANTHA SMART PUT A TWENTIES GINGER LOOK ON FOR THE TIME OF THEIR LIVES.

THIS GROUPS OF FRIENDS HAD THEIR PRE-PROM MEAL AT ONE THE SENIOR'S HOMES. IT WAS COOKED BY THE PARENTS AND SERVED BY THE PARENTS. ROYALTY FOR THE NIGHT BUT DON'T GET USED TO IT SENIORS.

JACOB WILLIAMS CROWNS THE NEW KING, KULIAN GREEN.

KIMBERLY PETERSON AND ??????. SHE HAS A VERY MODERN LOOK FOR THE DANCE.

JAMES CARTER, SHANTINAE RICE, ANDREA GUILFORD AND ?????? PUT ON THEIR BRIGHTEST SMILES FOR THE CAMERA. YOU LOOK BEAUTIFUL.

THE PROM IS NOT A FOUR HOUR EVENT. IN FACT THIS IS A TIME WHEN THE GIRLS SPEND DAYS GETTING READY AND THE GUYS SPEND LOTS OF MONEY PREPARING. THE GIRLS WILL START LOOKING FOR THEIR DRESSES AS EARLY AS SEPTEMBER AND OCTOBER, BUT THAT IS NOT SAYING THEY WILL WEAR ONE THEY FIND THAT EARLY. THE GUYS ARRANGE FOR THEIR TUXES TWO WEEKS AHEAD OF TIME, BUY THE TICKETS THE WEEK BEFORE AND THE DAY BEFORE THEY MAY GET A HAIR CUT. GUYS HAVE IT A LOT EASIER THAN THE GIRLS. GIRLS WILL HAVE MANICURES DONE A COUPLE OF DAYS AHEAD OF TIME JUST TO HAVE THEIR NAILS REPAINTED THE DAY OF THE PROM. THEY WILL SCHEDULE HAIR APPOINTMENTS EARLY IN THE MORNING BECAUSE SOMETIMES, DEPENDING ON THE HAIR STYLE, THE APPOINTMENT WILL LAST FOR HOURS. THEY WILL THEN GO HOME, EAT A LIGHT LUNCH, TAKE A SHOWER OR BATH, AND START GETTING READY. BY FOUR OR FIVE IN THE AFTERNOON, BOTH GIRLS AND GUYS ARE READY BECAUSE THEY ARE GOING OUT TO EAT. SOME COUPLES WILL GO TO OLD MEXICO, CALJUN CORNER OR BAILEYS BUT SOME ADVENTUROUS ONES WILL GO TO COLUMBUS FOR A SPECIAL MEAL. PICTURES BEGIN AT SIX AND THE DOORS OPEN FOR LEADOUT AS EARLY AS SEVEN. BY EIGHT O'CLOCK THE ATMOSPHERE IN THE COMMUNITY CENTER IS A FEVER PITCH. EVERYONE IS READY FOR LEADOUT TO BEGIN. THE SENIORS ARE LINED UP. THE JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS ARE WAITING AT THE STAGE TO ANNOUNCE EACH SET AS THEY ARE SPOTLIGHTED AND THE AUDIENCE IS ANXIOUSLY PATIENT. THEN ... THE BIG MOMENT ARRIVES... LEADOUT!

Let's Get This Party Started!

The Moment We've all been Waiting for...

Mrs. Barrows gives out several awards at the time.

Stephen Lowman received an award in art.

Shea Thornton received an award and bashfully walked back to his seat.

Rob Smola smiles as he returns to his seat.

Christy Young and another student gratefully accept their awards. Shawn Mancill grins as he sits back down.

Brittney Porterfield is one of the many students who received awards this year for excellence in a class.

The Award goes to...

A walk to remember

156 Spring

Adam Shew, Eric Betts, Rob Smola and Ryan Puhr are fine examples of this years graduating class.(left)

Chris Houston, Stacy Willis, Allie Dowling are in the top of their class as honor graduates and members of National Honor Society. (right)

Will Hart, Jamie Smith, Tiffany Rogers, Emily Rucker, and Laura Rucker wait impatiently for the graduation to begin. This is the last stepping stone on the way to adulthood. Make the most of your time here and enjoy building your future.

Holly Beasley, Raychelle Watts, Shantinae Rice, and Kim Shirley represent their class also as Honor graduates.

Amanda Thomas, Emma Yarbrough, Marjorie Pomeroy and Melissa Dodgen show that intelligence and beauty metriculate from Eufaula High.

Christy Davis, Channing Byrd, Emily Irvin, and Lindsey Eubanks chatter about their futures while lining up for the big procession into the gym. The rain didn't put a damper on their spirits but it did move the ceremony inside.

These past seventeen years have been like a roller coaster ride. There have been ups and downs, but many laughs along the way. We hope that you take every chance of success that comes your way. There will be one day when you look back at all the memories you have made, and those memories will mean more to you than anything. Just remember that time is a wheel in constant motion, always rolling us along, and when you want to look back on the years---you will find yourself wondering where those years have gone. We will always be here for you---so keep those memories held tight in your heart.

We Love You!

One of your first words was.... air-plane.

Then you discovered cars.

It has been a thrill to see you grow and become your own man.

But just remember..... even though you've got your wings..... don't fly too far from home!

We Love You,
Mom, Dad, Rachel, Karliegh,
Grayson, Gran, and Granddaddy.

Each day brings new beginning- Decisions you must make You're the only one to choose the road that you will take

You can choose to take the road of life that leads to great success
Or travel down the darkened road that leads to great distress

Please open up her eyes dear Lord that she might clearly see Help her stand for what is right- Be the best she can be!

Help her Lord to just say "no" when temptation comes her way
That she might keep her body clean and fit for each day

When her teenage years are over We know she will see
That life is lived its very best walking next to Thee

Always be proud of your achievements and use them to fulfill your dreams We are so proud of you Brittany now and forever!
we love you
Dad and Mom

From the day you were born, I knew you would make your mark on this world, and just look at the lives you have touched! Your will, determination, and the stronghold you have on what you know to be right and just are qualities I admire in you! Your genuine love for God and all His creations shine so brightly in your beautiful face. Surely, I am the most blessed Mother in all the world to have you for a daughter! You are the sweetest gift from God! Though destruction walk around us, Though the arrows past us fly, Angle-guard's from Thee surround us: We are safe if Thou are nigh.
